Library Association

Pursuant to a call, a number of citizens met at the court house some days ago and organized a Library Association. The association was made to secure the new books and periodicals for the library and to further the best interest of the institution in whatever way a multitude of opinions may lead.

Mr. H. B. Lacey, the prime mover in forming the association as well as in securing the library building, was elected president and Mr. G. H. Babbitt was elected secretary and treasurer.

Several committees were appointed and a line of work mapped out. The people at large may look for a call from members of at least two of these committees, that on membership and on the donation of books.

We trust our citizens will be liberal in their donations and help maintain the Association. If the library is to be made the power for good which it can be the people must make it so. The building alone is but a waste of money unless it is used for the purpose for which the donations were made. Let's get together and make something worth while.

Whenever You Need a General Tonic Take Grove's
The Old Standard Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic is equally valuable as a General Tonic because it contains the well known tonic properties of QUININE and IRON. It acts on the Liver, Drives out Malaria, Enriches the Blood and Builds up the Whole System. 50 cents.

Robert Knox Chandler

Again death has knocked at the door of one of our homes and claimed as his own one of our promising young men in the person of Mr. Robert Knox Chandler, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Chandler, who died in Denver, Colorado, late Saturday afternoon.

Just as Robert Knox was blooming into a promising young manhood and it seemed that the fond hopes of his dotting parents were to be realized in a useful career for him, the hand of affliction was pressed to his brow and it was thought best that he should go to a more congenial climate where it was thought to restore him to health. But this was not to be. Several years spent in a high, dry climate brought no relief. Gradually he declined in strength and became more and more emaciated until when home last he seemed to be little more than a shadow of his former self.

Again he went away. Still dreaming, still hoping to regain health and vigor. This was not so to be and he continued to go down until it was seen last Wednesday that the end was near and his people at home were notified, when his father hastened to his bedside. All that could be done was done, but he was beyond human aid and the end came peacefully late Saturday afternoon.

His remains reached home Monday and were interred in the L. O. O. F. cemetery the next afternoon in the presence of a host of friends and relatives. The funeral was conducted in the home by Rev. A. L. Briant and Rev. J. F. Eddins.

Sunday School Class Entertainment

One of the most pleasant social events of the season was the entertainment of Mr. Walter S. S. C. in the hospital of Miss Elizabeth McDonnell. Quite a number of young people were gathered together. The genial hostess received the guests at the door, and Mrs. F. J. McDonnell ushered them to the punch bowl which was gracefully presided over by Miss Charline LaGrone and Mr. John A. Harris. Several hours were pleasantly spent on the lawn and Miss Clara Henson afforded good music. At a late hour cake and cream were served. The guests took their departure at a late hour assuring the hostess of having spent a most delightful evening.

Dunning-McHenry

The following which appeared in the Commercial Appeal Sunday, May 23rd, will be of much interest to Miss Dunning's many friends here:

"Mrs. Edward Patton Dunning, of Crystal Springs, Miss., announces the engagement of her daughter, Bessie Murrell, to Rupert Leon McHenry of Monroe, La., the marriage to take place the latter part of June."

Satisfaction.

The Soft Answer.
It is hard telling just what attitude to take with regard to the allegations and alleged misstatements and unkind remarks of other people. It does not pay to be too thin skinned. Besides, the other fellow may have been misquoted; and even if he said it, this saying sometimes does not make it so. Ignoring a thing of that sort brings it to the quickest death in the world and turns bad feeling into good. There is a book that says: "A soft answer turneth away wrath."—Los Angeles Times.
